Here's your chance to learn from one of the most successful handlers/trainers in the business today. Years of experience at the top of the trialing world as well as a practical, common sense approach that carries over to any herding application combine to give you a very worthwhile clinic experience.

No matter what your level of experience is, Kathy will give you plenty of helpful advice and "take home" knowledge.

Sign up early and send to: Rebekka Hankins at 25245 Lower Pleasant Valley Rd, Wilder, ID 83676. Call for more info at 208-861-6017.

Post mark no later than 2/27/2006

I hereby assume the sole responsibility for and agree to indemnify and save the Intermountain Stock Dog Association and its agents harmless from any and all loss and expense (including legal fees) by reason of the liability imposed by law upon the Intermountain Stock Dog Association and/or its agents for damage because of bodily injuries, including death at any time resulting therefrom sustained by any person or persons arising out of or in consequences of my participation in the herding/trialing/training activities, howsoever such injuries, death or damage to property may be caused and whether or not the same may have caused or may be alleged to have been caused by negligence of the Intermountain Stock Dog Association or any agents or any other persons. I will pay for any livestock or replacement value in the event of the death of any livestock by my dog. In case of any injury to any stock caused by the dog entered, I will assume total responsibility for any damage. I will pay the full market value of $150 for the injured animal in case of serious injury or the veterinarian bill if the injury is slight.
